MMFC KENYA MISSION TRIP UPDATE

Our mission trip has been rebooked for October 9-22, 2008.

Kenya has been a country of political unrest since their elections on December 27, 2007. The opposition party has alleged that the incumbent fraudulently rigged the election outcome leading to his victory. This spurred violence from the various tribal communities within Kenya leading to bloodshed (over 1,000 have been murdered) and more than 250,000 Kenyans have been displaced from their homes due to the violence.

After weighing all travel options, stewardship of the Lord's money, and listening to the guidance of our Lord, the ministry has rescheduled the missions outreach to October 9, 2008. Simply put, we are trusting in God's provisions in His guidance of our decisions.

The following PLANS are strategically designed to invest God's resources for a faithful R.O.I.:

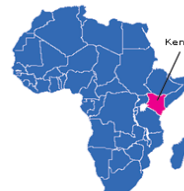

PLAN A: Kenya January 2008 - DID NOT work out due to lack of food, concerns with transportation and significant staff and missionary safety concerns.

PLAN B: Kenya October 2008 - Will send a minimum of 19 staff men to serve 50 missionaries only if there are signs in July/August that; food, transportation and safety needs can be met.

PLAN C: Dominican Republic OCTOBER 2008 - If, "Plan B" cannot be executed, then we will reschedule our mission trip to the Dominican Republic

Dominican Republic (DR):

MMFC Ministry is flying 2-pastors from the Dominican Republic to the April 2008 Indiana P1 weekend. Our intention is to bring MMFC ministry to their community sometime in the next 6 to 24-months. Our Kenya airline tickets could be changed to fly to the DR if needed in October '08. Please PRAY about all of this. Let us follow GOD as we look forward to tomorrow.
